

Online Portal (Step by Step)

1. Log in page
(If new to online portal, click “create an account”)

The screenshot shows the NHS Online Portal for Diabetic Eye Screening. On the left is a blue login form with the following elements: the NHS logo, the text 'Online Portal Diabetic Eye Screening', a 'Log in' heading, an 'Enter NHS number' field with the value '943 579 7881' and a 'Help with your NHS number' link, an 'Enter password' field with a masked password and a 'Forgotten your password?' link, a 'Log in' button, and a link to 'Create an account' for new users. On the right is a photograph of an elderly man with a white beard being examined by a healthcare professional using a specialized eye screening device. At the bottom of the page is a dark grey footer containing links for 'Contact us', 'Accessibility', and 'Privacy policy', along with the text 'Version - 4.11.2'.

2. Receive a code through registered email account. Enter the security code.

3. Confirm your e-mail address, click “Confirm details”

4. You can select

- “Appointments” – Book / Change / Cancel appointments
- “Letters” – Appointment Letters or Results Letters

The screenshot shows the NHS Online Portal for Diabetic Eye Screening main menu. At the top left is the NHS logo, followed by 'Online Portal' and 'Diabetic Eye Screening'. A small user icon is in the top right. The main content area has a blue background with white text. It says 'Book and manage your appointment or view and download letters'. Below this are two white buttons: 'Appointments' and 'Letters'. To the right is a photograph of an elderly man with a white beard looking into a slit lamp. At the bottom, a dark grey footer contains links for 'Contact us', 'Accessibility', and 'Privacy policy', and the text 'Version - 4.11.2' on the right.
